In 1851 Bollinger County was created from three other counties namely Cape Girardeau, Stoddard and Wayne.

In 1866 the Courthouse was destroyed by fire and again in 1884.

The County Seat is Marble Hill, Missouri 63764.

The Bollinger County Library is located in Marble Hill, Mo. and was formed in 1947.

The first newspaper was established in 1881 and is still published once a week on Thursday's.

In May of 1982 The Cape Girardeau County Genealogical Society of 204 Union Street Jackson, Missouri 63755 published the Schedules Enumerating Union Veterans and Widows of Union Veterans of the Civil War for the County of Bollinger, Missouri.
